TIMOTHY BLAINE HOWE

April 14, 1995

Oakland School District Police Officer Timothy Howe was on patrol in East Oakland during the late evening hours of April 13, 1995. At approximately 11:30 P.M., he conducted a car stop in the 1900 block of Crosby Avenue. Moments later, four to five gunshots rang out. An off-duty San Francisco Police Officer, who saw Officer Howe make the car stop, returned to Officer Howe's location and found him seriously wounded.

The San Francisco Police Officer used Officer Howe's car radio to call for assistance. Officer Howe was given immediate first aid at the scene and then transported to Highland Hospital where he expired shortly after midnight, April 14, 1995.

Officer Howe was 34 years old at the time of his death. He had been a member of the Oakland School District Police since September 1991. Prior to his appointment he served as a reserve police officer for the Concord Police Department. He was recently honored by the California Highway Patrol for his efforts in recovering stolen vehicles. He is survived by his parents, fiancée, and family.
