X. Old Business

A. 2012 Transportation Expenditure Plan (TEP) funded by Measure B1; Tess Lengyel, Deputy Director of Policy, Public Affairs and Legislation, Alameda County Transportation Commission

- After an extensive two-year development process, the 2012 TEP is complete and on the November 2012 ballot. The TEP responds to the many needs of Alameda County by extending and augmenting the current sales tax, which was approved by 81.5% of voters in 2000. The $7.8 Billion plan, funded by Measure B1, will improve and update the county's aging highway system; bring streets and roads into good repair; double transit operating funds, including for senior and disabled transportation; enhance maintenance and provide critical bus and rail capital expansions throughout the county; complete major trails; provide funding to every city for bicycle and pedestrian safety improvements; fund transportation investments to connect housing, jobs and services; and technology to improve transportation system efficiencies and commuter information.

B. Bus Rapid Transit , BRT, Project Update, Christine Calabrese

- Joint BRT Functional Needs Access Review; Council-approved conditions of Approval for the AC Transit Downtown Oakland to San Leandro Bus Rapid Transit (BRT) Project require joint review by the ACAC and AC Transit's Access Advisory Committee of all aspects of the BRT project, such as vehicle acquisition, station design and roadway improvements, at various stages of the project.

C. BART Elevator Maintenance Complaint Update; Commissioner Denise Jacobson, MCPD
