The trial of former BART police officer Johannes Mehserle has gone to the jury and a verdict is expected in early July.

Message from Mayor Ron Dellums and Chief Batts on a United Oakland:

We are united as a city and a community, and we are dedicated to ensuring the safe expressions of emotions during this difficult time. We understand that the community is grieving, and we are in this together. We will get through this together.

There are many people ready to help begin the healing process and they have opened their doors to allow us to express our grief in a healthy manner that will not endanger our safety, livelihood or reputation as a city. We are asking for the community to come together, look out for one another, and stay safe.

We will not tolerate destruction or violence. We live here, and we love Oakland.

Simple Steps to Help Keep Oakland Safe

We anticipate that regardless of the verdict reached by the jury, demonstrations could occur in downtown Oakland, and potentially throughout the city. The City is committed to facilitating peaceful demonstrations. And we are prepared to deal with the situation if it turns violent. Here are some simple steps you can take:

- Stay tuned to your local TV and radio stations for information.
- On the day the verdict is announced, if possible park your car in a secure location.
- Remove or secure large trash receptacles.
- Let employees know they have the option to close the business and get to a safe location.
- Be sure your business is well lit. Good lighting increases visibility—and also increases the effectiveness of any closed circuit TV system.
- If you have a closed circuit TV, be sure it is in good working order and is turned on. Save recordings of documented criminal activity.
- Leave the cash drawer empty and open after business hours.
- If your business is damaged, take photographs if possible.
- For crimes in progress and other emergencies, dial 911. If using a cell phone, dial (510) 777-3211.
- Report any suspicious activity to OPD by calling the non-emergency number: (510) 777-3333.
