FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE June 13, 2014

Oakland Launches 2014 Summer Food Program

June 13, 2014, Oakland, Calif. — The City of Oakland, Oakland Unified School District and Alameda County Community Food Bank today announced joint summer meal programs to provide local children free breakfast, lunch and snack during the school break. Approximately 20,000 children in the Oakland community depend on free and reduced-cost school meals during the school year. However, most families struggle to replace those meals for their children during the summer months. The Oakland Summer Food Service Program received an award from the Alameda County — Oakland Community Action Partnership to help reduce summer time food insecurity for Oakland's low income children.

The Free Summer Lunch programs bridge the meal gap by providing access to nutritious breakfasts, lunches and snacks at convenient locations throughout the city while school is out of session.

- The Oakland Human Services Department's Summer Food Service Program will begin June 16. More than 60 sponsored youth-serving sites throughout Oakland —including community-based organizations, City libraries and recreation centers, and faith-based organizations—will offer free lunch Monday through Friday until August 15.
- The Oakland Public Library will partner with the Alameda County Community Food Bank and its volunteers to serve free lunches provided by the Oakland Summer Food Service Program at 10 libraries. Please check with each library for their specific dates and times of service.
- OUSD's Seamless Summer Food Program begins June 23. More than 40 schools will offer free breakfast and lunch Monday through Friday with varying end dates. Children are not required to be enrolled in summer school to visit a particular school site.

There are no program requirements or paperwork to complete to benefit from the program. All children and youth ages 18 and under can visit any location to receive a free meal. In 2013, more than 110 sites distributed 200,000 free summer meals.

Finding the closest free meal is just a phone call away through the Alameda County Community Food Bank's Emergency Food Helpline (800-870-FOOD).

To find a list of current sites online, visit the Alameda County Community Food Bank's website: http://www.accfb.org/summer_lunch.html.

Following is a partial list of summer meal sites as of June 13, 2014. Additional sites will be added or deleted throughout the summer.
