Mayor Libby Schaaf and Mayor Ivy Taylor of San Antonio Agree to Friendly Wager on Western Conference Finals

Oakland, CA - Mayor Libby Schaaf and San Antonio Mayor Ivy R. Taylor have agreed to the terms of their wager on the Western Conference Finals matchup between the San Antonio Spurs and the Golden State Warriors. Game two of the series is underway tonight at Oracle Arena in Oakland. The Warriors lead the series one game to none, following this weekend's impressive comeback.

THE TERMS

- The losing mayor must send their counterpart a gift basket of goods from local businesses in their city.
- The losing mayor agrees to wear a shirt or jersey of the victorious team during the first game of the 2017 NBA Finals and share a photo of it on social media.

Additionally, both Mayor Schaaf and Mayor Taylor have committed to using this moment of civic enthusiasm to raise awareness about hunger and food insecurity in their respective communities. Mayor Schaaf is encouraging fans and community members to donate to Alameda County Community Food Bank by visiting their website: <https://donate.accfb.org/>.
