MEMORANDUM

TO: HONORABLE MAYOR & CITY COUNCIL

FROM: Sabrina B. Landreth

SUBJECT: City Administrator's Weekly Report

DATE: June 30, 2017

INFORMATION

Following are the key activities to be highlighted this week:

No BART Train Service Between Lake Merritt And Fruitvale Stations – On Saturday, July 1 and Sunday, July 2, BART crews will be rebuilding the trackway between Lake Merritt and Fruitvale stations as part of the “Better BART” efforts. When the closure occurs, no trains will run between those stations and Lake Merritt station will be closed. Free buses will be available to move riders around the closure. Riders on the Warm Springs/South Fremont, Dublin and Oakland Airport lines will be impacted. The buses may add 20 to 40 minutes to your trip. The closure will allow maintenance crews to replace the nearly 45-year-old deteriorating trackway between the two stations. These dates may be subject to change. For more information, please visit <http://www.bart.gov/news/articles/2017/news20170302-1>.

National Night Out Registration Deadline – Deadline is Friday, July 14 for neighborhood and community groups to register to be a host for the annual National Night Out event being held on Tuesday, August 1, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. Sponsored by the National Association of Town Watch, National Night Out is America’s night out and a time for neighbors to get together and have a block party, ice cream social, potluck or other outdoor event to build neighborhood spirit and unity. These efforts are a first defense against crime. Block parties can be hosted anywhere including townhouse complexes, apartment buildings or even in a park near a condominium. Caution tape may be provided upon request at registration and streets will be blocked off at no-cost. For more information or to register, please visit www.oaklandnet.com/nno or call (510) 238-3102.

City Of Oakland Engages Community In Recruiting New Fire Chief – On Monday, May 1, the City of Oakland launched a nationwide search for a Fire Chief for the Oakland Fire Department (OFD). The City’s goal is to ensure that the best and brightest candidates emerge from the recruitment process. The City will engage the community and OFD staff to maximize stakeholder input. This insight will be used for the following:

- Help inform the recruiter to find the most qualified pool of candidates
- Provide the City with community-driven criteria to evaluate the final candidates

- Give the new Fire Chief a roadmap of how the community expects the Fire Department to move forward under new leadership

Community meetings began May 1 and ran through May 17. The position announcement was posted on Thursday, May 18, and will be closing on Monday, July 3. To view the position announcement, please visit <http://bit.ly/2q8PzQz>. For an overview of the recruitment process, please visit the recruitment page at www.oaklandnet.com/firechiefrecruitment.

City Encourages Oakland Residents To Apply For Measure LL Police Commission – On Wednesday, May 31, Mayor Libby Schaaf and the Selection Panel for the Police Commission announced the opening of the application process for the Measure LL Police Commissioners. Establishing and maintaining public trust and confidence in the Police Department is essential for the Department to be able to provide the highest level of service to the community. The Selection Panel will seek to make appointments that reflect Oaklanders' diversity of experiences, especially individuals from communities experiencing the most frequent contact with the Department. Strong commitment to police accountability and public service will be prioritized. Duties include overseeing the Community Police Review Agency, which will conduct investigations into allegations of officer misconduct; propose changes to, approve or reject current or proposed Department policies; remove the Chief of Police for cause; as well as other duties. Commissioners must meet two criteria: 1) Be a resident of the City of Oakland and 2) Be over the age of 18 by date of first Commission meeting. The Selection Panel strongly encourages formerly incarcerated individuals to apply. Measure LL prohibits these categories of people from serving: current sworn police officers; current City employees; former Department sworn employees and current or former employee, official or representative of an employee association representing sworn police officers. Applications are available at <http://www2.oaklandnet.com/policecommission>. Paper applications will be available at your local library, recreation centers and City Hall. Applications will be accepted until June 30, when the Selection Panel will begin to interview candidates. Appointments will be made by August 8. Interested applicants are encouraged to apply as soon as possible. To read the media release, please visit <http://www2.oaklandnet.com/w/oak064133>.

Fourth of July Oakland Municipal Band Concert – Starting Tuesday, July 4 from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m., Oakland Municipal Band is hosting free concerts at Oakland Parks & Recreation's (OPR) Edoff Memorial Bandstand, located at 666 Bellevue Avenue inside Lakeside Park. In memory of Anne Woodell, whose support of the City of Oakland helped to save many of its programs and institutions, including the Oakland Municipal Band, this concert season is dedicated to her. The 35-piece band performs music from a variety of genres, including marches, classical, pop, big band, movies, international, show tunes, and more, for the enjoyment of the diverse population of Oakland and its surrounding areas. The concerts reach out to underserved individuals such as seniors, young families and those on limited incomes who may not have access to a live, musical event. Lakeside Park is a cultural center of the city and the free concerts bring citizens of all ages and backgrounds together for quality music, picnicking and socializing. To learn more about Oakland Municipal Band and additional concert dates, please visit their website at <http://oaklandmunicipalband.org/>. For more information about OPR's Edoff Memorial Bandstand or other Lakeside Park facilities, contact Zermaine Thomas, Public Service Representative at zthomas@oaklandnet.com or (510) 238-2218.

Cast Your Vote for Studio One Art Center – Through Friday, June 30, Oaklanders are encouraged to vote for Studio One Art Center, the City of Oakland's North Oakland Jewel, in the East Bay Express' 2017 Best of the East Bay competition. To cast your vote, visit www.EastBayExpress.com/BestOf and select Studio One under the Best Place to Take Art Classes category. This art based vocational Recreation Center has been operated by Oakland Parks & Recreation for nearly 80 years. Studio One Art Center hosts classes for youth development and adults in a large variety of mediums such as Sculpture, Painting, Drawing, Glass, Ceramics, Jewelry, Photography and much more. For details about specific classes, days, and times, please visit www.studiooneartcenter.net For more information about Studio One, contact Alethia Walker, Program Director at walethia@oaklandnet.com or (510) 597-5027.

Oakland Unite's Messengers4Change Friday Summer Nights Program Starting July 7th – On Friday, July 7, Oakland Unite will begin hosting the Friday Summer Nights Programs in East and West Oakland. These events are free, open to the public and offer free food, games, entertainment and raffles for all ages. These programs will run for six weeks, every Friday night, from 6:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. The East Oakland Peace at the Park Program takes place at Arroyo Viejo Park, located at 7701 Krause Street and the West Oakland Friday Night Live Program takes place at Hoover Elementary School, located at 890 Brockhurst Street. The Friday Summer Nights Programs aim to change community norms around violence through community engagement and empowerment. These events are funded by Oakland Unite. For more information, please contact Bill Richie, Community Building Coordinator, at brichie@oaklandnet.com, or 510-238-2185.

Learn to Report Sex Buyers in Oakland – On Saturday, September 17, Mayor Libby Schaaf announced the launch of ReportJohn.org, an online and mobile tool used to deter the commercial sexual exploitation of children in Oakland. Developed in partnership with the California CEASE Network, the web based app has nearly doubled reports of sex buyers in the City of Oakland. You can make a report in less than 2 minutes. Learn how to use this tool by clicking here. For more information, please contact Karely Ordaz Salto, Special Assistant to the Mayor, at kmordazsalto@oaklandnet.com or (510) 238-7340.

OPD Has Openings for High School Students to Become Police Explorers – Continuously through spring 2017, high school students (14 – 19 years old) are invited to join the Police Explorers Program and learn more about careers in law enforcement. The Explorers program includes career opportunities, service learning, leadership experience, life skills and character education. For more information, contact Officer Charles Stone – Oakland Police Activities League (PAL) at (510) 421-2684 or oaklandpal@oaklandpal.org.

Coffee With A Cop – On Tuesday, June 27, members of the Oakland Police Department hosted a “Coffee with a Cop” community event at the Starbucks on 8th Street and Broadway. Representatives from the OPD Tactical Operations Team were there with their motorcycles and several community members got to try sitting on the saddles. Created by the Hawthorne, CA, Police Department in 2011, Coffee with a Cop is one of the most successful community-oriented policing programs across the country. Meeting together in a relaxed atmosphere is a great way to build trust and build relationships – one cup of coffee at a time. For more information, please contact the Oakland Police Department Media Office at opdmedia@oaklandnet.com or (510) 238-7230

Theater Under The Stars – From Friday, July 7 through Sunday July 16, Producers Associates is bringing affordable American theater to local families at the city-owned Woodminster Amphitheater, located at 3300 Joaquin Miller Road. Nestled in one of Oakland Parks & Recreation's (OPR) most popular outdoor landscapes, Joaquin Miller Park. From the beginning, Woodminster Amphitheater has been used for a variety of concerts and performances and the tradition continues! Enjoy the magic of musical theater, the dazzle of Woodminster Theater, and the enchantment of OPR's Joaquin Miller Park under the stars. Discount tickets include half-off opening night performances for Oakland residents and the Kids Come Free program. To view performance schedule, discount programs or purchase advanced tickets, visit www.woodminster.com For more information about Joaquin Miller Park, contact Tiffany Jimenez, Office Assistant II at tjimenez@oaklandnet.com or (510) 238-7275.

West Oakland Branch Library Presents "Stop the Violence," A Music/Spoken Word Event – On Saturday, July 8, at 1:00 p.m., the West Oakland Branch Library, located on 1801 Adeline Street, will host a music/spoken word event called "Stop the Violence," with the TuBeNu Cultural Gatherers. TuBeNu are poet and storyteller Zakiyyah Capehart Bolling and vocalist and pianist Bryant B. Bolling. This event is free. Sponsored by the Health and Human Resource Education Center, the Akonadi Foundation, and the West Oakland Branch Library. For information, please contact Susy Moorhead, Branch Manager, at smoorhead@oaklandlibrary.org or (510) 238-7352.

Get Involved at Rockridge Library's Community Engagement Match Up – On Saturday, July 8, at 11:00 a.m., you can come learn about and even join local organizations working to make positive change in Oakland and the Bay Area. Each organization will give a brief presentation about what they do. An information fair will follow. If you are ready to support a cause or you're simply curious about the issues affecting your community, this event is for you. Ask questions. Get to know your city. Organizations include Showing Up for Racial Justice (SURJ), DreamCatcher Youth Services, Centro Legal de la Raza, and more. The event will take place at the Rockridge Branch Library, 5366 College Avenue. For information, contact Paul Schiesser, Branch Manager, at pschiesser@oaklandlibrary.org or (510) 597-5017.

Docent Talk about Berkeley Rep's "An Octoroon" – On Saturday, July 8, at 1:00 p.m., a docent from the Berkeley Rep will give a talk about the company's current production, "An Octoroon," at the Piedmont Avenue Branch Library, located on 80 Echo Avenue. A spectacular collision of the antebellum South and 21st Century cultural politics, The New York Times called the play "This decade's most eloquent theatrical statement on race in America today." The play runs through July 23 at Berkeley Repertory Theatre, 2025 Addison Street, Berkeley. This is a free program. For information, contact Rebekah Eppley, Branch Manager, at reppley@oaklandlibrary.org or (510) 587-5011.

Green Tee Golf Tournament – On Monday, July 10, Oakland Parks & Recreation's Cultural Arts Division is bringing in its annual fundraiser full-swing at Metropolitan Golf Links, 10051 Doolittle Drive. It's tee time. The Green Tee Golf Tournament event aids OPR-sponsored cultural arts events and youth development programs. The event will have a live auction, long-drive and closest-to-the-pin contest, live music, catered lunch and more. Show up with your A-game and bring us your best hits. This is sure to be an exciting competition. Teams and Individuals are welcome. For more information and to register, please contact Karis Griffin, Recreation Supervisor, at GreenTeeGolfOPR@gmail.com or (510) 238-2259.

Free Real Estate Readiness Workshop For Arts Groups, Collectives And Organizations – On Thursday, July 13, the Northern California Community Loan Fund (NCCLF) will host the final workshop of a free, three-part Real Estate Readiness Workshop series for all Oakland arts groups, collectives and organizations. The workshops will be held at the East Bay Community Foundation, 353 Frank H. Ogawa Plaza, from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. To sign up for the workshops, visit <http://cast-sf.org/keeping-space-oakland-announcements/>. These workshops were part of the Community Arts Stabilization Trust's (CAST) announcement that six Oakland arts and cultural organizations will receive assistance to secure long-term, affordable, safe space in Oakland. The technical assistance is through Keeping Space – Oakland, CAST's pilot program to assist arts nonprofits that are vulnerable to space instability and displacement. $90,000 in professional real estate training and consultation services will be awarded across six local organizations. Award recipients include Alena Museum, Pro Arts, Project Bandaloop, PLACE for Sustainable Living, Qilombo and Ubuntu Theater Project. CAST launched Keeping Space – Oakland in December 2016 with funding from the Kenneth Rainin Foundation and the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation. The announcement represents one strategy of many proposed by the Oakland Arts Workspace Group, a public-private partnership that includes the Kenneth Rainin Foundation, CAST, NCCLF and the City of Oakland. The group is focused on creating workspace stability to foster, support and sustain the arts and cultural ecosystem in Oakland. For more information, please contact Roberto Bedoya, Cultural Affairs Manager, at rbedoya@oaklandnet.com or (510) 238-2136.

Race to Fundraise – On July 14 from 12:00 p.m. – 1:30 p.m. outside of Oakland City Hall's Dalziel Building, located at 250 Frank H. Ogawa Plaza, the Oakland Parks, Recreation & Youth Development Department is hosting a fundraiser between City Department Directors racing big-wheel bikes for a charity of choice. Each Department will collect donations for their charity of choice. The winner of the adult big wheel race wins 25% of the raised charity funds to go towards the charity of their choice. Second place wins 15% and third place wins 10%. The remaining 50% of proceeds will go to the Oakland Parks and Recreation Foundation to benefit youth development program. To register your department, please contact Tiffany Jimenez, Office Assistant II at tjimenez@oaklandnet.com no later than July 7.

OPD Is Hiring Police Cadets – Continuously through spring 2017, ambitious young women and men are invited to join the Oakland Police Department (OPD) law enforcement team as part-time Police Cadets. Cadets, who must be high school seniors or attending college, are rotated through a variety of assignments at OPD designed to develop their interest in police work. You may apply at any time; the position is filling continuously. Police Cadets are part-time employees who receive training and experience in law enforcement. Wages start at $14.42 per hour and Cadets may work up to 19.5 hours per week. To learn more, please visit <https://agency.governmentjobs.com/oaklandca/default.cfm?action=viewJob&jobID=1750435>. For more information, please contact Phyllis Turner, Administrative Assistant at pturner@oaklandnet.com or (510) 986-2721.

OPD Makes Arrests – On Wednesday, June 28 at about 7:24 p.m., an armed robbery occurred on the 4200 block of Santa Rita Street. Oakland police officers dispatched to the scene obtained a description of the suspect and the suspect vehicle from the male victim. Investigation led responding officers to the area around 35th Avenue and Mangels Avenue, where they successfully arrested an Oakland man in connection to the armed robbery. On Wednesday, June 21, Oakland police officers arrested Robi Sojourner, 27, in connection with the December 2014 homicide of Luis Meraz, 27. The murder of Meraz occurred in the 1100 block of 107th Avenue on Thursday December 4, 2014 at 7:08 p.m. On Friday, June 30, the Alameda County District Attorney's office formally charged Sojourner with the murder of Meraz. On Sunday, June 4 at approximately 3:20 a.m., Oakland police officers responded to a report of a fatal shooting in the 1600 block of Linden Street. Responding officers located the victim, 32-year-old Andrew Williams of San Pablo, who was pronounced deceased on scene. On Thursday, June 8, the murder suspect, 31-year-old Artison Manalastas of Antioch, was located and taken into custody by the Oakland Police Department. On Monday, June 12, the Alameda County District Attorney's Office charged Manalastas with the murder of Williams. For more information, please contact the Oakland Police Department Media Office at opdmedia@oaklandnet.com or (510) 238-7230.

OPD Kicks Off Summer Movie Night – A Family-Friendly Event Hosted By The Youth Outreach Unit – On Friday, June 23, the Oakland Police Department Youth Outreach Unit (YOU) started a new tradition of holding Summer Movie Nights. Nearly 90 people, including kids and their families, came to the first OPD Summer Movie Night, held in the Police Administration Building auditorium. Between the officers, kids, and families, about 20 pizzas disappeared. As the unit's name implies, YOU reaches out to connect with Oakland Youth by providing fun, positive and motivating experiences. Movie night is a great way for officers, kids, and their families to enjoy time together, munching snacks and enjoying a kid-friendly movie. For the first movie night, the invitation went out citywide. Kids attended from North and West Oakland, Chinatown, East Oakland PAL, and the Jr. Giants program. The Oakland Police Department plans to make Movie Night a regular event at the Department. For more information, please contact the Oakland Police Department Media Office at opdmedia@oaklandnet.com or (510) 238-7230.

Ace Kids Golfers Have Putt-Power At PGA Drive – On Tuesday, June 20, Oakland Parks & Recreation's Ace Kids Golf participated in the PGA Drive Chip and Putt Challenge at Metropolitan Golf Links located at 10051 Doolittle Dr. This annual event is one the most recognized and exciting tournaments held on the West Coast. With over 100 individual players vying for a top-ranked spot, Ace Kids Golf made a well-deserved impression on the league. Six youth from the program qualified to participate. From the team, five players received honorable mention; one team member, ten-year-old Laila Johnson, placed 2nd for her age range in the putting competition. Oakland Parks & Recreation is proud of Ace Kids Golf's efforts and its athletes' success. Congratulations on a job well done to all participants at this year's PGA Drive. If you would like information on how to sign your child up for an exciting Summer of golf, contact Preston Pinkney, Program Director, at ppinkney@oaklandnet.com or (510) 351-0391.

Jazz on Sundays at Golden Gate Branch Library – On Sundays starting on July 9, at 3:00 p.m., the Golden Gate Branch Library, located on 5606 San Pablo Avenue, will kick off its annual Jazz on Sundays series, which will feature top-notch local talent through August 30. The July 9 program will feature vibraphonist Yancie Taylor's group. Each week, the headlining artist will perform at 3:00 p.m., followed by a "History of Jazz" discussion at 4:30 p.m. and a youth group performance at 5:00 p.m. Admission is free and donations to the Friends are welcome. Sponsored by the City of Emeryville and Oakland Public Library. Subsequent Sundays in July will feature singer Rhonda Benin on July 16, pianist Glen Pearson on July 23, and the Calvin Keys Quartet on July 30. For more information, please contact Erin Sanders, Branch Manager, at esanders@oaklandlibrary.org or (510) 597-5023.

First Mobile Mayor Launched – On Saturday, June 3, Mayor Schaaf along with her office staff and volunteers launched the first Mobile Mayor at the Grand Lake Farmers' Market. The event engaged more than 50 people with most residents expressing interest in the issue of equitable jobs and housing as well as safety and the environment. Mobile Mayor evaluations demonstrated overwhelmingly positive feedback from the public. Consistent with Mayor Schaaf's goal of providing Responsive Trustworthy Government, Mobile Mayor is designed to reach out to Oakland residents and boost their awareness and access to City services. Following the success of the first pilot launch, Mayor Schaaf is eager to have the next Mobile Mayor in East Oakland on Friday, July 7 from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at Gazzali's Supermarket, 7000 Bancroft Avenue. Services may vary upon location and Mobile Mayor rolls through Oakland communities monthly. For more information, please contact Yvonna Cázares, Director of Community Engagement, at yczares@oaklandnet.com or (510) 238-7157.

Oakland Unite Street Outreach Team Training – Beginning Monday, June 19, the Human Services Department's Oakland Unite division hosted its annual three-day training for Oakland Street Outreach Workers and Violence Interrupters in partnership with trainers from the LA-based Urban Peace Institute. Oakland Street Outreach efforts aim to reduce retaliatory violence by helping high-risk youth and young adults mediate conflicts and connects them to appropriate services and resources. Street Outreach and Violence Interruption teams are based at three community-based organizations: Building Opportunities for Self Sufficiency, Oakland California Youth Outreach and Youth ALIVE! The teams work closely with City staff to implement violence reduction strategies across Oakland. Urban Peace Institute, co-designer and facilitator of this year's training, runs the LA Urban Peace Academy – a rigorous training program for violence intervention specialists that sets professional standards for this dangerous work, critical to keeping peace on the streets. For more information, please contact Sara Serin-Christ, sserin-christ@oaklandnet.com or (510) 238-3718.

Oakland Department of Transportation Transform Oakland's Streets – On Friday, May 26, Oakland's Department of Transportation released a notice of community interest seeking input on a new program that would transform Oakland's largest asset – our streets – into vibrant public spaces. The potential new program would integrate art into everyday infrastructure through projects like creative crosswalks and intersection painting. Additionally, the program would enable new public spaces such as plazas and parklets. To learn more and provide OakDOT with your ideas, please visit <https://beta.oaklandca.gov/services/transform-streets>. For more information, please contact Menaka Mohan, Community Transportation Planner, at mmohan@oaklandnet.com or (510) 238-6657.

School's Out, Summer Camps Are Open – Beginning Monday, June 19, Oakland Parks & Recreation's (OPR) Summer Youth Development Camps start at community centers across the city. Programs include day and overnight camps, golf, tennis, cultural arts, swimming and boating. If you haven't enrolled your child in a camp yet, don't delay. Summer is right around the corner and camps are filling up fast. For a list of community centers near you, please visit www.oaklandnet.com/parks. For more information about what camp and activities each center offers, please visit or call the recreation facility. Thursday, July 13, 2:00 p.m.	46391 - RFP for Strategic Investment Plan Oakland Fund for Children and Youth FY 2019-22  The City of Oakland is seeking an individual consultant or firm to conduct a strategic planning	Michael Wetzel, Health and Human Services, mwetzel@oaklandnet.com

	process and develop the 2019-2022 Strategic Investment Plan for the Oakland Fund for Children and Youth (OFCY). Applicants are allowed to include subcontractors as appropriate for specific activities associated with the development of the Strategic Plan. This plan will guide OFCY's Planning and Oversight Committee (POC) by identifying strategies for grant-making, leading to the selection of programs and activities to achieve positive outcomes for children and youth over the three-year grant cycle (2019-2020, 2020-2021, and 2021-2022). As part of the strategic planning process, the consultant or firm will work with staff to develop the community engagement plan and facilitate community engagement activities, methods or events to inform and receive input from the public, particularly, youth and their families. OFCY strongly encourages applicants to work with community engagement facilitators with the qualifications and competency to successfully engage diverse populations through the planning process. The consultant will work with staff to develop a plan to engage stakeholders through presentations, interviews, focus groups, listening sessions, public forums, surveys, and community meetings, as appropriate. The community input will inform the development of a Strategic Investment Plan for FY2019-2022 that is explicit in its intended impact and intention in alignment with the leading initiatives underway in Oakland and Alameda

	County, including the work of Oakland Unite in addressing the shared goal of reduced crime and violence among young people. The lead consultant selected will support the POC Strategic Planning Subcommittee and staff to identify effective funding strategies and develop a Strategic Investment Plan that will be made available for public comment prior to finalization. The lead consultant will present on the development of the plan and final product to the POC, and will present the plan to Oakland City Council for adoption. The consultant will develop the final FY2019-2022 Strategic Investment Plan, which will clearly identify current service needs and gaps relative to addressing OFCY's four strategic investment areas; describe specific three-year program initiatives that address the needs and gaps relative to each investment area including target population, performance and impact objectives, intervention strategy, evaluation plan, and funding allocations; and describe how each three-year program initiative is aligned and coordinated with other public and private resources to achieve maximum service performance and youth impacts.
