INFORMATION

The Citizens' Police Review Board (CPRB) has postponed the scheduled forum for tonight on the Police Response to Occupy Oakland due to safety and security concerns of the scheduled participants. A Special Meeting of the CPRB is scheduled for February 16th at 6:15pm in Hearing Room 2 to discuss the rescheduling of the forum.

Members of the Occupy Movement are holding their own event tonight on the same topic at the Grand Lake Theater at 6pm. Members of the Occupy Movement have invited CPRB Board members and staff to attend. Both Board members and staff are planning to attend this event and share information about the CPRB's services and process of investigating complaints against the Oakland Police Department. This is an Occupy event and not an official meeting of the CPRB.

There are reports on blogs and through social media that the CPRB is not accepting complaints about the Occupy protests which are untrue. The CPRB has received and continues to receive complaints relating to incidents involving Occupy Oakland that are currently under investigation. For more information about CPRB's current work on Occupy investigations, visit our website at www.oaklandnet.com/cprb.html. To file complaints with the Oakland CPRB, please contact our main line at (510) 238-3159 or email Patrick Caceres at pcaceres@oaklandnet.com.

Respectfully submitted,
