

YOUR LIBRARY CARD

Your Oakland Public library card is your gateway to borrowing books, magazines, audiocassettes, videos (VHS, DVD, VCD), CDs, government publications, pamphlets, maps and pictures from any Oakland Public Library location.

You must have your own library card with you to check out library materials. If you do not have your card with you, you will be allowed to check out 1 item with ID. You are responsible for all items checked out to you. If your card is lost or stolen, or if you change your name or address, notify the Library immediately. There is a fee for replacing lost cards.

LOAN PERIOD

Most library materials are checked out for 3 weeks. Most videos/DVDs circulate for 7 days. There are limits on the number of items you may borrow at one time, depending on type of material, subject, and local demand.

RENEWALS

You may renew most items once unless someone else has placed a hold on that item. Videos and CDs/DVDs cannot be renewed. You may renew materials at any Oakland Public Library location in person or by phone, or by clicking on "Renew Items/ Place Holds" on the homepage of our Web site (www.oaklandlibrary.org).

RETURNING LIBRARY MATERIALS

You may return all Oakland Public Library materials to any of the Library's branches or bookdrops.

Please return library materials on time. You will be charged overdue fines for items returned late: 20¢ per day for each item or $1.00 per day for each video/DVD or book-on-tape. There are no fines on children's materials, except for videos/DVDs. You will be charged the current replacement cost for each item not returned. If the item is returned damaged, you will be charged a fee.

PLACING HOLDS

You may place holds on many items that are owned by the library but not currently available. You can place holds in person or by phone at any Oakland Public Library location, or by clicking on "Renew Items/Place Holds" on the homepage of our Web site.

If the book you wish to borrow is not owned by the Oakland Public Library, you may place an interlibrary loan request, or recommend that the library purchase the item.

PATRON RECORDS

The library maintains minimal information on your registration and borrowing record. This information will be divulged to law enforcement only upon confirmation of a valid search warrant or court order.
