Fair offers one-stop for Bay Area Families seeking Day & Overnight Summer Camp Options

Oakland, CA. – Oakland Parks & Recreation is hosting the Bay Area Summer Camp Fair on Sunday, February 26, from noon to 4 p.m. at the Lakeside Park Garden Center, 666 Bellevue Avenue. Parents and guardians are invited to this free event to explore options for summer camps for youth, ages 4 to 17. The Camp Fair brings together summer day and overnight camp providers to one location so Bay Area families have a one-stop shop to plan their 2017 summer in one day.

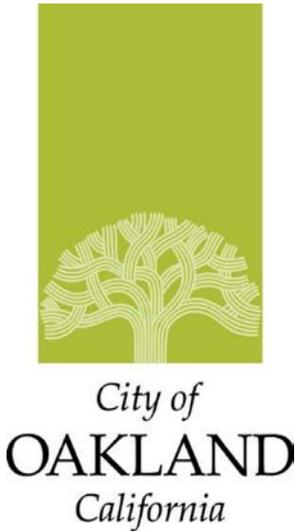

Participants can meet the people who work to inspire, enlighten and educate the youth in our community as representatives from non-profit, public, for profit will be on hand to answer questions and register participants. In addition to programming information, service providers will also provide details on scholarships options.

The Lakeside Park Garden Center may be reached from the 19th Street BART station and via various AC Transit bus routes. Visit 511.org or call 511 for assistance in transit planning.
