

NEWS FROM

Oakland Police Department

Anthony W. Batts
Chief of Police

For Additional Information:

Public Information Officer
Jeff Thomason
Ph. 510.238.7230
Fax.510.238.6947

MEDIA ADVISORY

For Immediate Release

OAKLAND POLICE TRAFFIC DIVISION WILL PASS OUT TOYS TO CHILDREN

WHAT: The Oakland Police Department Traffic Division will pass out approximately 75 gifts to children ages 1 to 12 years old in the City of Oakland. There will be a Traffic officer riding a police motorcycle dressed in a Santa suit contacting children on the street and passing out toys.

DATE: Friday, December 17, 2010

TIME: 7:00 A.M. (7:00 A.M. – 7:15 A.M. for interviews)

WHO: Traffic Officers

LOCATION: Start at 2751 73rd Ave, Oakland (Eastmont Substation) and it will end in West Oakland.

BACKGROUND:

This is the Forth annual toy give-away the Traffic Division has prepared. The toys are bought with money donated from the Oakland Police Motorcycle Drill Team. For any additional information please contact Officer Jeff Thomason at jthomason@oaklandnet.com.

###

