HOMICIDE SUSPECT SURRENDERS TO POLICE

Douglas K. Yim, Jr, turned himself into police in Firebaugh, a town in Fresno County, Monday morning at 4:15 a.m. Yim was turned over to the custody of the Oakland Police and charged by Alameda County District Attorney's Office for murder and attempted murder. He is being held at Santa Rita Jail.

On April 2, 2011, at about 5:30 PM, Oakland Police Officers responded to the 3100 block Herriot Avenue on a report of a shooting victim inside the residence. Dzuy Dunh Phan, a 25 year old from Alameda was located unresponsive and suffering from apparent gunshot wounds. Paramedics responded and pronounced the subject dead at the scene.

Homicide Investigators were called to the scene to conduct the investigation. Investigators learned there was a second shooting victim, a 35 year old resident of El Sobrante that was wounded during the same incident. Lead Investigator, Angelica Mendoza subsequently learned that Douglas Yim had shot both men inside of his home as the result of an argument and fled the residence.
