

Claim Stolen Property: Valley View Road Case

The Case

On May 3rd at 4:30 P.M., Oakland Patrol Officer Malcolm Miller responded to 6338 Valley View Road on a report of trespassers inside of an unoccupied home.

Officers on scene recovered two van loads of items believed to be taken from homes in Oakland, Piedmont, Orinda, Berkeley, and Kensington. Recovered items include personal documents, televisions, computers, tools, and jewelry.

Although OPD has been able to return some of the items to victims, many more are still being held. The police have no leads for these items.

Can You Identify Your Property?

If you recognize any property shown in the following documents as yours, you may claim it. You must have:

- A police report from the relevant city
- Serial numbers for the merchandise
- Receipts for merchandise

If you do not have serial numbers or receipts, you must have another way to prove ownership, such as a photograph of the property.

This property may be claimed up to June 30 by contacting PSO Trent Thompson at TThompson@oaklandnet.com.

After July 18, all unclaimed property from this case will be moved into the Property and Evidence Unit.

To view photos of unclaimed property, go to Patrol Division, What's New.

<http://www2.oaklandnet.com/Government/o/OPD/o/PatrolDivision/index.htm>

- Artwork & Knickknacks
- Books
- Cameras
- Cell Phones
- Computers
- Identification Papers & other documents
- Jewelry Boxes
- Miscellaneous
- Purses & Backpacks
- Tools
- Watches