OAKLAND POLICE TAKE SEXUAL ASSAULT SUSPECT INTO CUSTODY

On Tuesday, June 7th, a 28 year old woman was sexually assaulted in her home in the 900 block of Apgar St. She was home alone around 9:40 a.m. when she was confronted by a man who had broken into her residence. He sexually assaulted her and then took electronic items before fleeing.

Special Victim's Unit Investigator Ofc.R.Tisdell took over the case. After a very diligent investigation including the release of video taken by the victim, which resulted in tips from the public, the suspect was identified as 47 year old Oakland resident Dion McDaniel. McDaniel was located and arrested yesterday at 11:30 a.m. by Oakland Police Officers and Parole Agents. He has been charged by the Alameda County District Attorney's Office with burglary and multiple sexual assault charges. McDaniel has an extensive criminal history including 11 felony convictions.
