Possible Stolen Bracelet Recovered

Oakland, CA — On February 16, 2011 the Oakland Police Department arrested a man in the Fruitvale area on an unrelated crime, who was in possession and attempting to sell a men's gold link chain bracelet. The individual arrested has a history of arrest and convictions for robbery. Police investigators believe the gold chain bracelet may have been taken during the commission of a crime. The photograph of the bracelet is shown below. If anyone has information regarding the bracelet, or believes they are the owner of the bracelet, please contact the Oakland Police Department Major Crimes Section at (510) 238-3475.
