Oakland Black Officers Association Host Senior Appreciation Holiday Mixer

Oakland, CA – The Oakland Black Officers Association (OBOA) will host its 1st Annual Holiday Mixer for senior citizens. In addition to dinner being served, OBOA members will facilitate games and prizes during the four hour event. It is anticipated that approximately 100 seniors will participate in this event. “I am very proud of the community service being provided by the OBOA” said Chief Howard Jordan. “When people think of the holiday season, they typically think of giving toys to children. It’s good to see senior citizens included in our community outreach.”

DATE: Sunday, December 17, 2011

TIME: 12:00pm – 4:00pm

WHO: Oakland Black Officers Association

LOCATION: 9255 Edes Avenue, Oakland CA 94603

The OBOA is still in need of volunteers and donations for this event. Anyone interested, or for more information please contact Alonzo Weatherly at 510-209-0573 or Carletta Garrett at 510-551-3268. All donations are tax deductible.
