FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 21, 2012

Oakland CA.- On January 21, 2012, at 8:00 p.m. a crowd of approximately 60 persons peacefully assembled at Frank H. Ogawa Plaza. Oakland Police facilitated a circuitous march through the downtown streets of Oakland between the hours of 9:00 p.m. and 11:30p.m.

Although social media sites had indicated that individuals or groups planned to target police personnel, police vehicles, property, and media vans, there were no reports of violence, arson, vandalism, or injury. A total of one arrest was made – for an individual observed blocking the roadway with garbage. Objects, debris, and barricades have been set on fire during past marches.

"The mission of the Oakland Police Department is to provide the people of Oakland an environment where they can live, work, play and thrive free from crime and the fear of crime."
