Oakland Police Make Arrests and Seize Large Quantity of Firearms

Oakland, CA –On May 16, 2012 at 5:00 PM, the Oakland Police Department Gang Gun Intelligence Task Force (GGITF) safely served a search warrant at a commercial building in the 900 block of 76th Avenue. As a result of this intelligence based operation, a total of two people were arrested. In addition to the arrests, officers seized a total of 16 illegally possessed firearms as well as ammunition.

Chief Howard Jordan said, “Anytime we remove illegal guns and criminals off our streets, it is a successful operation.” The Oakland Police Department and the City of Oakland is committed to reducing crime in our City. This is one of the largest illegal gun recoveries within the city at one time.

The case remains under investigation; additional details regarding the seizure may be made available soon.
