Oakland Police Arrest Three Robbery Suspects

Oakland, CA – On June 3, 2012 at 2:10 PM, the Oakland Police Department responded to a report of an armed robbery in the 900 block of Center Street. When officers arrived on scene they located two male victims, ages 16 and 19.

While officers were gathering investigative information from the victims, officers observed the three suspects still in the immediate area. Officers attempted to stop all three and the suspects ran. A short foot pursuit followed.

During the foot pursuit, as one of the suspects attempted to climb a fence, a loaded gun fell from his waistband. Officers were able to detain the suspect and recover the gun. Officers detained the other two suspects several blocks away.

The victims positively identified all three male juvenile suspects as being responsible for the robbery. All three were arrested for suspicion of armed robbery. Loss from the victims was recovered at the scene.

The Oakland Police Department continues to successfully remove criminals from the streets of Oakland with the assistance from the community.
