Oakland Police Arrest Three Home Invasion Robbery Suspects

Oakland, CA —On June 27, 2012 at 12:20 P.M., four adult male suspects entered an Oakland residence in the 2000 block of 26th Avenue. One of the suspects armed himself with a kitchen knife that he retrieved inside. All three victims were forced inside a closet and barricaded while the suspects conducted a messy search of the residence.

Responding officers observed four adult male suspects exit the residence and flee on foot. A perimeter was established and three suspects were taken into custody in connection with the home invasion robbery. The fourth suspect was not located.

This is an ongoing investigation. Anyone with information about the robbery is requested to contact the Oakland Police Department's Major Crimes Section-Robbery at (510) 238-3326.
