Oakland Police Arrest Four Homicide Suspects

Oakland, CA —On Tuesday morning, October 24, 2012, the Oakland Police Department's SWAT Team along with partnering law enforcement agencies served multiple homicide arrest warrants at various locations throughout the city.

Officers arrested four men in connection with the homicide of Jordan Chhit, which occurred on January 29, 2012 at 9:00 PM, in the 1700 block of 20th Avenue.

Officers additionally recovered illegally possessed firearms during the service of the search warrant.

The Alameda County District Attorney's Office has charged the following in connection with Chhit's homicide:

- Aaron Kheav, 21
- Phon Mey, 29
- Scott Moeun, 20
- Saun Oeurn, 29

All are residents of Oakland.

A fifth suspect, whose name has not been released, is being sought.

The Oakland Police Department and investigator Eric Milina would like to thank the community for their help, and for working with patrol officers and investigators in making these notable arrests. Open investigations continue to produce leads with an anticipated future arrest.
