Oakland Police Make Arrests

Oakland, CA — Oakland Police arrest robbery suspects and recover loss.

On December 21, 2012, at 8:30 AM, Oakland Officers were conducting crime prevention patrol in the 1900 block of Pleasant Valley Road, when they were flagged down by a victim who reported he had just been robbed of his iPhone. The victim provided a description of the suspect and direction the suspect fled with the loss.

Officers began checking the area. They located the suspect and when they attempted to detain him, he fled on foot. Officers were able to catch the suspect and recover the victim's iPhone. The suspect, who is a male juvenile and an Oakland resident, was arrested in connection with the robbery. Officers learned the suspect also matched the description of another attempted iPhone robbery the previous day.

On December 22, 2012, at 10:28 AM, Oakland Police Officers responded to the 900 block of 56th Street on a report of an armed carjacking.

When officers arrived on scene, the victim provided description of his vehicle and the suspects.

On December 22, 2012, at approximately 11:32 AM Alameda Police Officers responded to a report of a hit and run in their city. Upon their arrival they located the victim's vehicle. Witnesses directed Officers to the suspects who had fled from the vehicle.

Alameda Officers arrested two male juveniles, who are Oakland residents, in connection with the armed carjacking.

The investigation is on going and anyone with information is asked to contact the Major Crimes Section-Robbery and Assault Unit at 510-238-3326 or Nixle Tip.
