Oakland Police Announce the Start of the 167th
Recruit Academy Today

Oakland, CA —Today, the 51 recruits comprising the Oakland Police Department's 167th Recruit Academy began their 27-week training. Police Chief Howard A. Jordan, joined by his command staff, addressed the recruits, welcoming them to the law enforcement family and emphasized how important the role and responsibility a police officer has in the community. No matter their unique characteristics, all recruits share the same quality – the desire to professionally serve the community of Oakland.
