Oakland Police Serve Search Warrant and Recover Guns

Oakland, CA — One of our commitments this new year is to strengthen our communication within our community, and better share crime information, prevention, response and enforcement results.

On April 16, 2013, at 6:18 PM, Oakland Police officers followed up on information from concerned citizens that people were dealing drugs in the area of 79th and Locust streets. Officers' initial investigation and interview with the individual dealing narcotics at 79th and Locust streets led them to request a search warrant for a house in the 7800 block of Locust Street. Crime Reduction Team 5 (CRT 5) safely served the warrant and was able to recover a shotgun and two handguns, along with ammunition. Two male adult suspects were arrested.

These cases are pending review by the Alameda County District Attorney's Office. The investigations are ongoing and anyone with information is asked to contact investigators at Crime Stoppers of Oakland (510) 777-8572.

Nixle Tip Watch allows tipsters to send OPD a tip three ways:
