Oakland Police Department Seeks Community Input

Oakland, CA — On Friday, September 6, 2013, the Oakland Police Department is releasing a survey to gauge the community perception of how well the Department is doing. The Oakland Police Department is dedicated to enhancing public safety through community policing strategies. Creating policies and strategies that are citizen-informed and building relationships of trust between officers and community members are priorities for us. The soul of community policing is collaboration. To know whether our efforts are successful, we need to hear from you.

The brief survey regarding personal satisfaction with the Oakland Police Department is available on the Oakland Police Department website homepage (www.oaklandpolice.com).

Crime Stoppers of Oakland at 510-777-8672 or the TIP LINE at 777-2805.
