*UP TO $100K REWARD FOR THE ARREST AND CONVICTION OF AYA'S KILLERS

The suspect vehicle, shown above, is described as a newer, silver four-door sedan with two occupants, also pulled over to the curb facing southbound in the 5800 block of Market Street. A confrontation took place between Nakano and the suspects. Aya Nakano was fatally shot.

BACKGROUND: On June 12, 2013, at approximately 10:57 PM, officers responded to a report of a shooting in the 5800 block of Market Street. Additionally, Shotspotter Technology confirmed one gunshot activation from the area of 58th Street and Market.

When officers arrived on scene, they discovered victim Aya Nakano suffering from a fatal gunshot wound.

Investigators have determined that prior to the shooting, the victim's vehicle was apparently rear-ended by another vehicle in the area of Stanford Avenue and Market Street. After the collision, Nakano pulled his vehicle over to the curb, facing southbound in the 5800 block of Market Street.

Information obtained at the scene described the suspect vehicle fleeing southbound on Market Street after the shooting.

Investigators have provided a photo of the victim and are requesting help from anyone who may have:

- Seen Nakano in the area of Stanford Avenue and Market Street on the night of the shooting (June 12, 2013), prior to 11:00 PM;
- Witnessed the vehicle accident;
- Witnessed the confrontation between the Nakano and suspects;
- Witnessed the shooting; or
- Seen the suspect vehicle fleeing the scene after the shooting.

The suspect vehicle is described as a newer, silver four-door sedan with possible front-end damage.
