

RAMON IRIZARRY

January 18, 1983

Officer Ramon Irizarry was assigned to Vice Division as an undercover officer. On January 11, 1983, while he was on duty with other Vice officers serving a search warrant at 1717 Peralta Street, a car pulled up in front of the house and the driver began honking the horn. Officer Irizarry approached the driver of the car and identified himself as a police officer.

The driver pulled a gun and shot at Officer Irizarry, striking him in the head. The suspect then drove off and was apprehended some distance from the scene of the shooting.

Officer Irizarry was transported to Providence Hospital where he was placed on life support systems. With the concurrence of the family, these were removed and Officer Irizarry passed away at 11:49 A.M., January 18, 1983.

A member of the Oakland Police Department since February 1981, Officer Irizarry was survived by his wife and child.
