- Barbara Cook, Executive Director, Providence House

Providence House is a high-quality, supportive housing program founded by the Sisters of Providence, and owned and managed by Providence Health and Services. The 34 one-bedroom and 6 two-bedroom apartments were designed and built especially for people with low-incomes living with HIV/AIDS and other disabilities. Apartments are wheelchair accessible and have other accommodations such as grab bars and an emergency pull cord. In addition, all the comforts of home are provided, including full kitchen amenities, private bathrooms with a tub or walk-in shower, built-in storage and an open living space. Shared laundry facilities and welcoming community spaces are available to all residents. Providence House is the largest single provider of housing for persons living with HIV/AIDS in Alameda County.
