

City of
OAKLAND
California

Media Contacts:

Becky Dowdakin
Environmental Services
bdowdakin@oaklandnet.com
(510) 385-4025

Sean Maher
Public Information Officer
smaher@oaklandnet.com
(510) 238-6358

News from: Oakland Public Works

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 3, 2017

Photo/Video Opportunity

Sustainable Living Tips and Demos
Oakland EarthEXPO on Thursday, April 6

Oakland, CA – Over 100 exhibitors and a projected 2,000 attendees will take part in Oakland's 22nd annual free environmental sustainability fair, Oakland EarthEXPO.

What: 22nd Annual Oakland EarthEXPO

When: Thursday, April 6, 2017, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Where: Frank H. Ogawa Plaza, Downtown Oakland

Who: Over 100 exhibitors and 2,000 attendees

Photo/Video Highlights:

- Twenty-three health and community resource exhibits, 19 nature exhibits, 18 food exhibits, 11 transportation exhibits, nine energy exhibits, eight Zero Waste exhibits, four water exhibits and more
- East Bay Regional Park District's mobile visitor center
- "Ugly" produce soup
- Climate change games
- Electric car test rides
- Electronics recycling
- Native plant and wildlife displays
- Environmental advocacy campaigns
- Creative reuse arts and crafts
- Environmentally-friendly products
- Rain barrels and other water catchment, reuse and conservation

Oakland EarthEXPO highlights water conservation, waste reduction, recycling, energy efficiency, alternative transportation, volunteerism, urban nature and more! The goal is for Oakland EarthEXPO attendees to leave with information and resources for sustainable living.

Admission is free.

For more information, call (510) 238-7611 or visit oaklandearthexpo.com.
Visit <http://bit.ly/2mQyIt> for a full list of exhibitors.

#