Oakland, CA — The City of Oakland proudly presents the annual Re-Create Art Contest and Exhibition. A public reception opens the exhibition of works created by Oakland student artists using discarded and reused materials.

The reception will be held at 54 Water Street in Oakland’s Jack London Square on Friday, November 19, 2010 from 6:00 – 8:00 p.m. The reception will feature the announcement and presentation of awards to contest participants, and is held in recognition of “America Recycles Day” to inspire students and attendees to practice recycling and reuse every day.

Re-Create is an annual art competition promoted in Oakland schools that requires use of discarded or reused materials in a creative application of the “4Rs” – Reduce, Reuse, Recycle, Rot.

Re-Create Exhibit Gallery hours are 2:00 – 5:00 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays from November 19 through December 19, 2010 at 54 Water Street in Oakland.
